Summary

eHome is experiencing a temporary glitch for high balance products. At this time, it is not applying the standard High Balance loan level price adjustment as outlined on the rate sheets. Please note that we are working to correct the issue and hope to have it resolved shortly. In the mean time, do realize that high balance scenarios will not price correctly in eHome, and HSOA will not honor lock requests that come over that are mispriced. Until this is corrected in the system, if we receive a lock request with incorrect pricing, we will send you an email with the correct pricing and request that you confirm that before we lock the loan. We will let you know as soon as the issue has been resolved. In the mean time, please feel free to reference the Rate Sheets for accurate high balance pricing.
